

A SIX-PACK OF CAR CORRAL GOODNESS

VIRginia International Raceway pulls throughout the Mid-Atlantic region to draw a crowd to the Michelin GT Challenge. There are several different Car Corrals on-site at the VIR track.

This year, with Michelin and IMSA working together, the Michelin Corral will house multiple automotive brands.

Audi, Ford and Nissan are among those that will feature at the Michelin Corral.

Meanwhile, Corvette Car Corral, Porscheplatz and BMW Car Corral are staples at most IMSA venues and are also among those featured here at VIR. Corvette and Porsche bring in over 200 cars each, with BMW about 150. Some corrals are Club supported and others are OEM supported.

VIR PULLS FROM EVERYWHERE

The Michelin GT Challenge at VIRginia International Raceway celebrates the Mid-Atlantic region for the second of two GT-only showcase race weekends in the IMSA season.

When arriving at VIR, you’re greeted with many pleasant surprises. VIR has a remarkable reach to pull from many different regions to its picturesque, historic venue.

The track is less than 50 miles from the Raleigh-Durham airport and slightly more than 60 miles to Greensboro. It’s 150 miles to either Charlotte or Richmond.

The track is surrounded by 15 million people within just 150 miles, and more than 300,000 people came through VIR’s gates in its 2018 racing season.

With a mix of a great track and resort amenities, VIR is a gem of a place that loves to be discovered.
